Prayer of Victory Over Infertility

*M*y God, Father, and Creator,

I thank you for being the creator and giver of life. I thank you for being a God that opens and closes my womb. Lord, I thank you that I don't have to worry about my fertility and becoming a mother because I can pray instead, about all things, including motherhood. I thank you that when I pray about this situation I will experience your peace that will guard my heart and mind (Philippians 4:6–7). You will keep me in perfect peace as I trust you, and keep my thoughts and mind fixed on you (Isaiah 26:3). God, I thank you for leaving me the gift of peace of mind and heart. Your peace is a gift the world cannot give me. So, I will not be troubled or afraid (John 14:27). Lord, I also thank you for giving every childless, barren woman a family, making her a happy mother. So, thank you in advance for making me fruitful, fertile, healing my womb, and giving me a family (Psalms 113:9).

Your word says in Hebrews 11:11 that it was by faith that even Sarah was able to have a child, though she was barren and was too old. She believed that God would keep His promise. So, God, I come putting my faith in you to conceive a child, although I've been diagnosed with infertility. I believe just like Sarah that you will keep your promise. And, just as the angel told Zechariah, "Don't be afraid!" I will not be afraid, Lord, because I know you have heard my prayer, just as you heard Zechariah's prayer for his wife Elizabeth. I thank you in advance for the great joy and gladness, and how I will rejoice at my baby's birth (Luke 1:13-14)! Lord, therefore, I will not fear bad news; I will confidently trust you to care for me (Psalms 112:7). I thank you that your Word says to don't be afraid, for you are with me. It says to not be discouraged, for you are my God. You will strengthen me and help me. You will hold me up with your victorious right hand (Isaiah 41:10). So, thank you for strengthening me when I'm tired. Thank you for helping me and holding me in your hands. You never let go of me. I will not walk in fear, worry, or doubt, but I will trust you, Lord. I will not be afraid!

Father God, Hannah stood praying to you and asked you to give her a baby boy. You granted her request and she gave him back to you, Lord, and her baby boy belonged to you his whole life (1 Samuel 1:26-28). I, too, am praying and asking you to give me my baby girl. I believe that you will, and I give her back to you, even now, before she's been conceived.

Lord, I serve you: the One and only God. I thank you for your provision over my life and protecting me from illness. Your word says that there will be no miscarriages or infertility, and you will give me a long, full life (Exodus 23:25-26). So, I speak life to come forth into my womb in Jesus' name. I take authority over the spirit of infertility, and command it to leave my body in Jesus' name! Daddy, I thank you that I am healed, I am fruitful, and I will conceive! In Jesus' mighty name! Amen!

Prayer for a Healthy, Full-Term Pregnancy

My God, Father, and Creator,
Thank you for this physical, tangible, manifestation of motherhood in my womb right now. Thank you for this precious miracle that you've blessed me with. You have created and formed this baby, and will cover and protect them in my womb (Psalms 139:13 NLT). I know that you are watching over this baby as he/she is growing and developing in my womb (Psalms 139:15 NLT). I was once childless, but you have made me a joyful mother (Psalms 113:9 NLT). Just like Hannah, I prayed and asked for this child, and you granted my request (1 Samuel 1:27 NLT). You blessed me with this gift of life inside of me. Thank you, God! Thank you for your faithfulness to me! As I rejoice in anticipation of birthing, holding, and nurturing this baby, I take authority over the spirit of fear trying to attack my mind and emotions at this happy time in my life. You keep me and my baby safe and sheltered from danger; you are a continuous and permanent help during trouble, and I will not fear (Psalm 46:1-2 NLT). Because you, God, remain with me and this child, keep us in your hands, and give me strength to carry this baby to full term, I have no reason to fear (Isaiah 41:10 NLT). You are my divine, supernatural, perfect peace, as I keep my focus on you, and who you are during the development, labor, and delivery of my child. You have created my and my baby's body to be strong and work together perfectly during labor and delivery (2 Samuel 22:33 NLT). Father, thank You for creating me in such a wonderful and complex way, so wonderful and complex that I can reproduce, conceive, carry, and birth my child. Thank you for creating me. Thank you for creating this baby inside of me. I submit this child back to you. Be glorified through my pregnancy and delivery! In Jesus' mighty name. Amen!
